PREFACE.

The original, and a copy, of this, the latest Visitation of Worcestershire are at the College of Arms; another copy is in the extensive and valuable collection of MSS. formed by the late Sir Thomas Phillipps, Bart. No other copy is known to exist elsewhere.

Additions by Sir Thomas are given in italics; a few notes are given in parentheses.

For information regarding Corporation Seals, the Editor is indebted to Messrs. Samuel Southall, Thomas Cox, James Morton and Richard Hemingway, the Town Clerks of Worcester, Evesham, Kidderminster and Bewdley, and to Mr. John H. Hooper, late High Master of The Fraternity of the Weavers, Walkers and Clothiers of Worcester; in those instances in which the originals are forthcoming, woodcuts are given from impressions kindly supplied by those gentlemen.

and to make assessments for repairing Bridges, Streets, &c; constituting John Freestone the first BAILIFF, and John Radford, Richard Potter, William Best, John Persall, Elias Artch, William Yates, Robert Green, John Doolittle, Simon Potter, William Siver, Simon Doolittle, and William Browne, the first CAPITAL BURGESSES; The Bailiff to be chosen annually one of the said Capital Burgesses the Munday after Michaelmas; To have a HIGH STEWARD, Sir Raphe Clare of Cawdwell being constituted the first HIGH STEWARD; To have an able Lawyer for their Under Steward, John Wyld, Esq., being constituted the first UNDER STEWARD, with power to the Bailiff and Chief Burgesses to chose five and twenty assistants and so many constables as they were wont to have; To have a Grammar School which shall be called the FREE GRAMMAR SCHOLE OF KING CHARLES IN KIDDERMINSTER with a head master and under master; The Governors whereof to be the Ordinary of the Diocese of Worcester for the time being, and the Bailiff and Chief Burgesses aforesaid, which Governors shall be a Body Corporate and have a com'on seal and power to purchase lands for the maintenance of the said Schole, to chose a master and under master, to plead and be impleaded, to make statutes and ordinances for the good Government of the said Schole; That the Bailiff and former Bailiff and Under Steward shall be Justices of the Peace within the said Borough and liberties; Granting and confirming to the said Bailiff and Burgesses all lands, tenements, Fairs, Markets, &c., anciently belonging to them.

Borough of Bewdley.

(In the Visitation is tricked, on a SEAL, an anchor in pale surmounted by a fetterlock, within the fetterlock on the dexter side of the anchor a sword erect on the sinister side of the anchor a rose. Legend, SIGILLUM : LIBERTATIS : BURGI : DE : BEAUDELEY. An impression of the Common Seal now in use has been kindly furnished by Mr. R. HEMINGWAY, Town Clerk of Bewdley; it corresponds with the older Seal (which is not now forthcoming), except that BEAUDELEY is spelt Bewdley according to modern usage.)

The Common Seal of the Borough of Beaudeley in the County of Worcester, first incorporated by King Edward IV, being a Member of the Earldom of March, and again incorporated by King James of blessed memory in the 3rd year of his reign by the name of BAYLIFF AND BURGESSES, consisting of a Bayliff, being head of the said Corporation and twelve Capital Burgesses; they have also a Recorder and a Deputy Recorder; The Bayliff of the present year is a Justice of the Peace and Quorum, and the precedent Bayliff is a Justice of the Peace within the said Borough and liberties thereof. And at this present Visitation, scil't, 21 Aug., 1682, John Clare, Bailiff, Sir Thos. Walcot, Kt., Barrister-at-Law and a Judge of the Welch Circuit, Recorder, Leonard Simpson, Barrister-at-Law, Deputy Recorder; William Deddicot, the last precedent Bayliff, Justice of the Peace; John Solley, Thomas Burlton, Peter Walter, John Bury, Peter Branch, Samuel Moore, Joseph Pooler, Thomas Watmore, Richard Cook, Samuel Slade, and Humphry Yarrington, Capital Burgesses.

Borough of Droitwich.

(In the Visitation are given in trick, on a shield, A sword of state paleways point downwards surmounted of two lions passant impaling Quarterly 1 and 4 Chequy Argent and Sable 2 and 3 Gules two barrows (salt baskets) Argent, also the Common Seal of the town bearing the same Arms without the impalement; Legend, + SIGILLUM + COMMUNE + VILLE + DE WYTCHE, and another Seal bearing the arms impaled above; Legend, THE SEALE OF THE STATUTE MERCHANT OF THE TOWNE OF DROITWICH. Woodcuts of the first and third would have been here given, if attention to an application to the Town Clerk for impressions had not been too long delayed; it is believed that the second is not now forthcoming.)

The Arms and Common Seal of the Town and Borough of Droitwich in the County of Worcester incorporated in the seventh year of King John of England by the name of Burgesses of Wich in the aforesaid County; To which Charter were witnesses the Lord Henry, Archbishop of Dublin, the Lord William, Bishop of Coventry, R. Earl of Chester, William, Earl of Chester, W. Earl of Ferrers, Hubert de Burgo, Justice of England, Walter de Lacy, H. de Mortimer, G. Fitz Renfrid, Brian de Lisle; as also confirm'd by Richard the Second in the first year of his Reign, King Henry the Fourth and Henry the Fifth his son, King Henry the Eighth, Edward the Sixth, Queen Mary, Queen Elizabeth, and continued by King James of blessed memory by his letters Patent by the name of BAILIFFS AND BURGESSES OF THE TOWN AND BOROUGH OF WICH ALIAS DROITWICH; The Bailiffs of the time being to be Justices of the Peace and Quorum, The Recorder, Justice of the Peace, and the two precedent Bailiffs for the year following also Justices of the Peace; And at this present Visitation, scilicet 13 Aug., 1683, are Edward Barrett and Edward Clifford, Bailiffs, Sir Thomas Street, Kt., one of the Barons of the Exchequer, Recorder, Wintour Harris and Henry Hodges, the precedent Bailiffs and Justices of the Peace, the Earl of Shrewsbury, the Earl of Plymouth, the Lord Coventry, Sir John Packington, Samuel Sandys, Esq., and several other gentlemen of note and principal Inhabitants of the Borough are Burgesses, John Philpot, Town Clerk.
